MR. ERNEST PAYNTER
REPORTS HIS SAFETY

Tells Brother of Trouble With The "Dixie," of Storm, And Final Reaching Harbor.

Mr. Harry Paynter has received the following interesting letter from his brother, Mr. Ernest Paynter, who is in the U. S. Navy:

U. S. S. DIXIE.
Hamilton, Bermuda, B. W. I.
January 8, 1912.

Dear Brother:

I don't know if you have been reading any disquieting yarns in the papers about this ship or not, but am just writing on the basis that you may have, and as I don't want you worry will let you know that we are O. K. We left New York, as per schedule for Guantanamo on the 4th, got outside and struck a peach of a storm; sprung a leak, got six or seven feet of water in our bottom pumps broke down, water almost up to our fire, and in danger of putting them out, but, finally managed to sneak in here. We are not certain as how long we will be here, most likely not more than four or five days, if that long. We don't think that anything serious is wrong, hope not anyway. Well, must close. Haven't been ashore as yet, but will go tomorrow and send you some cards. Love for all. Write soon.

SPLENDID PLAY
AT OPERA HOUSE

Irene Daniels And a Sterling Company Will Present Remarkable Production Here.

In offering the "Common Law," Montgomery E. Brewster presents Irene Daniels and a sterling company in the greatest story ever staged. Not only is the story a remarkable one, but there are several things connected with the company and the play that have never been before presented.

First, though the theme is new and for the first time used as the base of a play, the subject itself is recorded over two thousand years before Christ. Second, in bringing together the players for the cast, it is the first time that each actor and actress are all of the type class. Third, the play is without precedent, in consistency, for every word and action is perfectly natural, and you have read about such characters in the daily papers. Fourth, the play is original in its plot, construction and conception.

As the name applies, one might expect to see a woman have abuse heaped upon her after she had lived a "Common Law" life with a man, but such is not the case in the production. Instead, you will see a young woman trying to extricate herself from the circumstances that have been forced into her life, where she sees her brother go to prison, and her family disgraced, or live a common law life, which would be a thousand times worse than death. Words are inadequate to describe the moral interest which manifests itself in each who sees the "Common Law," and after seeing it you feel less selfish and be more content with your lot.

Mr. Brewster guarantees the same cast and production as will play at the Walnut Street Theatre, Louisville, the week of January 21.

Winchester Opera House, one night Wednesday, January 17.

LIVE BEAR ON
ROLLER SKATES

Will Appear at The Auditorium Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday Nights of This Week.

Baby Jack, the champion roller skating bear, will appear at the Auditorium Skating Rink on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, January 18, 19 and 20. Baby Jack skates about absolutely alone, hauls girl or boy around the rink in a cart, waltzes, smokes, dresses with full dress suit and cane, wrestles, plays games and does many other stunts. A special matinee for the ladies and children will be given Saturday afternoon.

Prof. Albert Waltz, famous trick and fancy skater, who appears for the last time at the Auditorium on Wednesday night, is attracting large crowds, and deserves a packed house at each performance, so marvelous are the stunts which he accomplishes.

VIOLET IS TO BE TAKEN BACK HOME

Foster Mother of Young Heiress Says She Is Just a Fanciful, Innocent Child.

New York, Dec. 17.—Determined to prosecute anybody who may have in any way influenced the girl in leaving home, and declaring that she will take her back to Chicago, Mrs. Herman Buehler, foster mother of Violet Buehler, the fifteen-year-old heiress found working as a nurse in this city, left Chicago Tuesday for New York, accompanied by Detective Sergeant Norton.

"Violet is merely a fanciful innocent child," said Mrs. Buehler just before she stepped on board of the train. "I have made plans to bring her home with me. But I am determined that I shall prosecute to the limit of the law any man who has been instrumental in detaining her in any way. I do not intend to allow the reports that a waiter has been interested in the girl to go unnoticed."

Violet Buehler is still in the care of the Children's Society, to which organization she was remanded from the Children's Court.

Mrs. Buehler sent a telegram to Mr. Walsh, Superintendent of the Children's Society, Tuesday, and the girl will be held until Mrs. Buehler arrives.

The Children's Society, of Chicago, notified the society in this city Tuesday that the girl had been incorrigible for some time. The girl was found in the home of Miss Anna Britt, on East Seventieth street, by a detective.

BIG WRECK
ON L. & N.

West Bound Passenger Train Crashes Into Empty C. & O. Extra.—Engineer Instantly Killed.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 17.—West-bound Louisville & Nashville passenger train leaving here at 4:15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, crashed head-on into an empty extra Chesapeake & Ohio train at Long Run, eighteen miles north of Louisville Tuesday night, instantly killing Engineer James Mahony, of Louisville, and his fireman, Thomas J. Johns, of Lexington, who were running the Louisville & Nashville passenger train, and Engineer Charles O'Lee, of Lexington, and his fireman, Forrest Marquis, of the Chesapeake & Ohio extra.

Conductor Fred Anderson, of Lexington, is reported seriously, if not fatally, injured.

Fifteen other persons are reported injured, among them Representative Emanuel Meyers, of Louisville, who was on his way home from the Legislative session at Frankfort.

Reports are that the trains were running at a fast rate of speed when the crash came, breaking all the glass from the windows of both trains.

A relief train was quickly hurried out from Louisville to the scene of the disaster and the injured passengers were taken to Louisville hospitals.

Practically all the passengers on the Louisville & Nashville train were more or less injured. Two Chesapeake & Ohio brakemen suffered severe injuries.

Both Engines Explode.

Both engines exploded. The passengers, among them Judge W. G. Dearing, general attorney for the Louisville & Nashville railroad, immediately set to work helping the injured from the coaches and went forward to assist in extricating the Chesapeake & Ohio conductor and his brakeman, caught in the wreckage when the combination coach in which they rode, was telescoped upon the shattered engines.

The Chesapeake & Ohio train, running on the Louisville & Nashville tracks, as do all Chesapeake & Ohio trains from Lexington to Louisville, was "dead heading" back to Lexington. Several hours previously the same train, starting out, had collided with a cut of freight cars in East Louisville and had to put back for repairs.

Misunderstood Orders Cause.

Louisville & Nashville officials expressed their belief that the wreck was due to misunderstood orders.

PREPARATIONS FOR
CONFEDERATE REUNION

Will Be Held at Macon, Ga., On May 7-9, 1912.—Many Plans Are Performed.

Macon, Ga., is making great preparations for the coming Confederate Re-Union to be held in May 7, 8 and 9, 1912. Colonel Walter A. Harris, who is Colonel of the Georgia Militia, has been selected as General Chairman and is assisted by an able corps of busy, business men, who are untiring in their efforts to make this the greatest Re-Union ever held in Dixie.

The Sons of the Confederacy will have a very important and prominent part in the coming reunion, for Commandant J. Marion Dunwoody, of the Thomas Hardeman Camp, No. 18, is doing some very active work for the Sons in the coming reunion. Mrs. Walter D. Lamar, head of the Georgia, U. D. C.'s, as chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary, is untiring in her efforts for the entertainment of the Daughters.

The Confederate reunion of 1912 will be the greatest ever held in any city in this Southland. Thousands and thousands of dollars are pouring into the treasury of the General Reunion Committee and every citizen of Macon is doing his share to make it a success. When the Veterans come to this—"The Magnetic Center," of Dixie—they will be extended a welcome of the kind they will remember until they answer the sound of taps. Macon will be theirs. Do with it what they will. Macon's people will extend the right hand of fellowship to the men who fought for Dixie. Everything that she possesses will be turned over to them while they are her guests.

A Committee of representative business men headed by John J. McKay, is in charge of the campaign for funds. Unlimited money is at the command of this committee and every dollar will be spent to give the Veterans the time of their lives. It is estimated by General Secretary E. H. Hyman, of the Executive Committee, that $100,000 will be used by Macon in entertaining her guests. Macon will not go out in the state of Georgia for a single dollar, but on the other hand will raise the entire amount from her own citizens, which shows the spirit that builds up cities, and is carrying out to the letter the promises made by Secretary Hyman at the Little Rock Reunion last year.

HON. J. M. STEVENSON

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 17.—Friday night at 8 o'clock the United Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a big meeting in the courthouse in honor of the anniversary of General Robert E. Lee's birth. Attorney John M. Stevenson, of Winchester, will be the speaker of the occasion and will speak on the life of the famous southern leader.

The Circuit Court room will be fittingly decorated and a number of solos will be rendered and patriotic songs will be sung. Miss Mamie Geary has charge of the musical program, which will be elaborate.

CARDINAL GIBBONS
SHOWS MUCH NERVE

When He Suffers A Fall Due to Priest's Blunder.—Not Seriously Injured.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 17.—Severely shocked by a fall to the floor of the altar at St. Vincent's Catholic church Cardinal Gibbons displayed striking nerve Tuesday morning when he insisted on performing his part of the ceremony attending the last rites over the body of Rev. Desire C. Dewulf. Immediately after the mass had been concluded the Cardinal arose from his seat under a canopy to don extra vestments before blessing the body of the dead priest.

While the robes were being placed on his shoulders one of the priests took the chair from under the canopy and passed it to an altar boy, telling him to put it in the aisle between the body and the altar. There was a chair in the aisle already. After putting on the vestments the Cardinal, who had not seen the removal of the chair, started to sit down again. He fell to the floor.

Exclamation of suppressed alarm broke from those on the altar, and some in the front pews, who had witnessed the accident, and a rush was made to the side of the fallen prelate.

TO FAVORABLY
RECOMMEND

A Bill Which Will Extend The Provisions Of The Present Local Option Law To All Counties Alike.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 17.—The House Committee on County Unit and Liquor Regulation met Tuesday night and after hearing arguments on the various county unit bills that have been introduced, agreed to make a report Wednesday recommending favorably a bill which will extend the provisions of the present local option law to all counties alike.

The bill is the same that has been introduced in the Legislature so many times in recent years, but has been killed in committee. It is likely that this bill will be the first to go on the calendar in the House.

The Joint Committee on Banks and Banking will meet in the parlor of the Capitol Hotel Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to hear arguments on all bank measures before the Legislature.

PAUL APKINS
FOUND GUILTY

Punishment is From Three to Nine Years in The Penitentiary.—Prisoner is Unmoved.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 17.—"We, the jury, find the defendant Peter Paul Apkins, guilty as charged in the indictment," was the verdict returned in the Fayette Circuit Court Tuesday morning signed by Fred Lazarus as foreman.

It took the jury less than ten minutes to come to an agreement and when the verdict was read by Deputy Clerk Clark Thomas (Day), the defendant maintained his accustomed coolness and stoically sat unmoved and apparently unaffected as the words were read that fixed his guilt, the punishment for which is from three to nine years in the penitentiary.

Alpha Hubbard, attorney for Apkins made an able defense for his client, but the facts necessary to establish the guilt of the defendant were matters largely of record in the courts here and in Paris, Ill., making the trial of the case short and conclusive.

Apkins is under indictment in the Jessamine Circuit Court, charged with the murder of his wife, formerly Elizabeth Young, and was served by Deputy Sheriff Wilson with a bench warrant, being committed to jail and will later be turned over to the Jessamine authorities.

SENATOR LORIMER
CROSS-EXAMINED

Fails to Tangle His Story, And Does Not Ruffle His Temper, For He Maintained His Composure.

Washington, Jan. 17.—A day's cross-examination of Senator Lorimer before the Senate Investigating Committee failed to develop any sensation. Evidently it had not tangled his story and certainly it did not ruffle his temper, for he maintained his composure throughout.

Most of the cross-examination was directed to Lorimer's recital of political conditions in Illinois when the legislature was electing a Senator in 1909, the personal associations of Democrats with Republican and the subsequent reasons why he believed the Democrats voted for him. When Lorimer got to talking politics, he coined a few epigrams.

"The direct primary in every northern state destroys the cohesiveness of the majority of the party," was one of them. Others were:

"I never go around trying to pick quarrels with people opposed to me. I usually go and do something to offset what they are trying to do."

"When I have anything to do, I have a habit of getting up in the morning and doing it."

Counsel for the committee got into the record the fact that after 101 votes had been cast in the legislature on the day Lorimer was elected, seven Republican Senators, who had not voted for Lorimer, changed their votes in his favor, making 108, which elected him.

Regarding the opposition to Governor Deneen, Lorimer declared there were men in the legislature in 1909 who would have been willing to elect Deneen Senator, if only to get him out of the Governor's chair.

When the committee's lawyers tried to get him to repeat a conversation, he usually declined to do so saying he could not remember more than the substance.

"I'm not going to testify to anything I don't know," was his frequent reply.

BURLEY SOCIETY
MAKES SALE

Deal Consummated Whereby 1,600,000 Pounds of Tobacco Are Disposed of to Mr. T. H. Kirk.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 17.—It leaked out Tuesday night shortly before midnight that at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society, which had been in session since the middle of Monday afternoon, that a sale of 1,600,000 pounds of tobacco of the grades known as D ones, twos, threes and fours, of the 1909 pool, had been sold to Mr. Theodore H. Kirk, the well known tobacco plunger, of Covington and Cincinnati.

The deal was later confirmed as to grades and number of pounds sold but it was stated that the price, while a good one, was private.

UNITED STATES
WILL INTERVENE

In Cuba if Further Attempts Are Made to Nullify Law—Department Serves Notice.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The State Department has served notice on President Gomez that the United States will intervene in Cuba if further attempts are made by the veteran organization to nullify the law prohibiting the interference of the military in political affairs in Cuba.

The notification of the American Government was served upon President Gomez through American Minister Beaupre at Havana. Senator Martin Rivera, Cuban minister to the United States, was unappraised of the action except through the press and declined to comment upon it.

It was on reports of American Minister Beaupre that Tuesday's note was based.

Minister Beaupre's Report.

Minister Beaupre reported Tuesday from Havana that in defiance of a decree issued by President Gomez, forbidding officers of the army and rural guard to participate in politics, which also is prohibited by military law, many army officers and rurales attended a meeting Sunday night of the National Council of Veterans, an organization of veterans of the Cuban war for independence.

The veterans have been active in the past three months in attempting to have displaced from the Civil Ser-

MUCH TROUBLE

In Rural Schools on Account of Drifted Snow.—Four Schools Have Been Dismissed.

Teachers and pupils in the rural schools are experiencing much trouble from the severe cold. In some places, the snow is so badly drifted that they can scarcely get to the houses. Twelve or fifteen schools are in session but with poor attendance. Four have been dismissed and will not reopen until spring.

According to Superintendent Lanter's records, 156 pupils were granted county diplomas in 1910-11. Twenty-seven of these are now attending high school. Quite a large number are expected to take the examination January 26 and 27.

MY FATHER.

Some months ago, my father, Mr.
R. E. Perry, became affected with an ailment which incapacitated him for active service. For many weeks, however, he gave his time and attention to the business which should have been given to rest and recuperation. As a result, he is now confined to his room, and I am conducting the paper alone. I make this explanation, in assuming the editorship of The News, in order that he shall not be held responsible for any mistake I shall make in recording a news item or for any editorial I may publish.

Before his illness, we were companions, in business, on pleasure trips and indeed, in everything which goes to make up a tender, understanding companionship. He is growing stronger now each day, and ere long will be able, we hope, to take up again the active interest he has always felt in the paper, in Winchester and his people.

Until that time, I am acting as editor, society editor, managing editor and in many cases reporter and sometimes "devil." My only motive in writing this is that those who read the paper shall be lenient in their judgment, kindly in criticism, and generous in their suggestions and words of encouragement.

My endeavors shall be for the interest of Winchester, first, last and all the time; for the uplift of humanity and a fair and impartial recording of the news. Indeed, I shall advocate in my humble way, such things as I know are right and just,
and then I am sure the policies of the paper will not be different from what my father would have them be.

USEFULNESS

(By L. H. Bush.)

What is more beautiful than the field of growing corn? From the time the small blades burst through the rain softened and sun warmed ground, on through its various stages of taller stalks and ever changing green, until the blades change to the color of old gold and the stalks are bowed down with the fully ripen-ed ears of corn, glistening in the autumn sun, and now for the first time peeping forth from the shuck, opened by the frosts of the coming winter, it is indeed glorious to contemplate, and gives joy and hope not only to the farmer who planted it but to all passers-by.

While the growing corn is a thing of joy, and beauty through all its stages in the field, its day of usefulness to man is not to be found, until the harvest time comes, when the glorious ears are plucked by the farmer, and transferred to his home, to be distributed as the bread of life for both man and beast the whole world over.

What is grander than yonder majestic oak, stretching forth its great gnarled limbs towards the skies, and towering above its brothers like some great giant. The snows and sunshine of an hundred years have filtered through its leaves and limbs, and in its mighty strength, it laughs and jeers at the storms and sleets which beat against it to no avail.

But now its time of real usefulness to man has come, it has ripened into full fruition, for already the master woods-man has gone through the forest and marked this tree. Soon his sturdy men will follow him, and with great saws cut and remove this mighty monarch from its native heath, leaving behind as the only evidence of its one-time magnitude and grandeur the great broad stump, which softens and decays and sinks back into mother earth, but the great body of the tree, becomes a part of the beautiful homes, which shelter and protect us, and in many other ways finds its day of real usefulness to man.

A flower garden is indeed beautiful, and brings great joy to hearts, but the days in which the beautiful blossoms grow and romp and play with luxurious idleness in the sunshine of their beloved garden, are not the really useful days.

The most beautiful rose does not find its time of fruition in life, its day of real usefulness, until it is plucked and carried with love and good cheer to the bedside of a sick friend. The shy, modest lily-of-the-valley, hiding behind the shelter of the dark green leaves, dreams of its day of usefulness when it shall have been made into a bridal veil.

The sweet violets, which my lady loves so well, do not know how useful they can be, until some day they are gathered with gentle hands, and sent as a token of sweetheart love.

The trees, the flowers, the growing crops, and all the goodly things were made for the use of man, but of man, God's best, His last and most perfect creation, what shall we say? For whose use was man made, and what is his destiny? Man was created for the use of God Himself.

What a mighty thought it is, that we should be of use to God. Can it be possible that God has a purpose and use for us in the life to come?
Indeed it is, for this world is God's great cornfield, His vast forest, His magnificent flower garden, and we,
His children are His ever ripening ears of corn, His growing trees, His beautiful blooming roses.

Since we like the trees, the flowers, and the growing crops of corn, are each day going on towards our harvest time, our day of fruition, when our time of real usefulness shall begin, we should strive in this life, to become mighty oaks, to grow into perfect ears of corn, and to let the days of our lives unfold with as much fragrance and beauty, as do the leaves of the most beautiful rose.

These days here, are but as our school days; after all, we are only little children at school, and while it is our duty to work hard during school hours and to do as best we can whatever is our lot or portion in life to do, we should also run and play, at the play-times, gathering all the sunshine and happiness we can find in this life, and remembering that it takes the sunshine as well as the rain to color the rose, to strengthen the oak, and to ripen the ear of corn.

Ever and anon the Great Farmer of this Universe walks through His rows of ripening corn, and plucks here and there the golden ears as He has use for them. The Master Woodsman of this earth goes everyday throughout His great forest, marking the trees which are to be cut down and taken away. The Divine Gardener loves His flowers dearly, but sometimes He puts His hand beneath His most beautiful rose and lifts it from the bush.

So when some pure, perfect, and loving woman has been taken, we must remember, the beautiful rose that only yesterday we plucked in the height of its beauty and fragrance to be taken to the bedside of our friend, and then we will know that our gentle woman has been taken because God has a greater need and use for her, in the other world.
Sometimes it is a man of great learning, mature with years and ripe with wisdom. If we ask the reason why, and why stop to think, we must needs know that it is because God has use for this fully ripened ear of corn, and that our great man, our dear friend, has gone to add his learning to the great wisdom and knowledge of a better world. When death cuts down the strong, sturdy, gallant, and noble man, under whose love and protection we have lived and rejoiced so long, let us but think of the great oak which was cut down, because for it a day of greater usefulness has come.

When you were a child and engaged at play with your neighborhood playmates, in your front yard, during those glorious hours between the close of school and night, don't you remember, how as the shadows of evening began to lengthen and the dusk approached, that dear mother or father came to the door and called you to your home. You went in without fear or hesitation, for you could see the cheerful fire within through the window, and you knew the great love, the shelter, and the comfort you should find there.

That is the way we should try to learn to feel about death, that it is simply an opening of the door, and a going in at night time of play-weary children.

In the beginning of this New Year, when so many good resolutions are being made, some of them only too soon to be broken, let us resolve within our heart of hearts, to try not to be afraid of God, but each day to understand Him better, ever bearing in mind, that our experience in this life, its loves and duties, its failures and successes, its joys and hopes, its triumphs and tribulations, are but the daily lessons which we are learning in His great school.

Let us learn therefore, to be more useful day by day, not only for the sake of the great pleasure and joy, which will come to us in so doing,
but that we may fulfill the real purpose of our being, and that when the harvest time comes and the day of fruition is at hand, we may be like the fully ripened ear of corn, well rounded out, mature and perfect from the sunshine of many happy days, like the mighty oak, strong and sturdy, and brave in heart, from the storms and trials we have endured, like the beautiful rose pure and spotless, sweet and fragrant, from a long, clean life of love, sunshine and good deeds.

"They cured me of kidney trouble taken other so called cures for years, without benefit and they also improved my sight. Now, at seven-

SOCIETYDay-Wasson

The marriage of Miss Blanche Wasson, of Rhea Springs, Tenn., to Mr. Will Day, of this city, was solemnized in Paris on Monday.

The young couple eloped in an auto to the Bourbon capital, where they were united in marriage. Following the ceremony, they returned to this city, the bride going to the home of her cousin, Miss Mary Sadduth, where she had been visiting and the groom staying with his parents.

When the rumor of the marriage became current here, it was denied by the young people, but a telephone message to Paris brought news that the license had been issued.

The bride is a student at Sayre College, Lexington, and a lovely and charming young lady. She possesses an attractive personality, and is widely popular.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. M. Day, and is a member of a distinguished family. He is quite popular in social circles, and is a young man of upright character.

Mr. and Mrs. Day have the best wishes of a host of friends.

M. C. Club.

The meeting of the M. C. Club, held with Mrs. Shirley Hadden, was one of the most interesting in its history. Mrs. Lucien Beckner gave the magazine article on "The Republic of Liberia," which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. C. H. Dietrich gave an instructive paper on "The Madonna in Art," illustrating her remarks with three hundred and fifty Madonnas. Practically every artist's conception of "the Madonna" was represented, and the paper was one of the most enjoyable features of the meeting.

Mrs. Owen Fitch gave an able reading on "The Power of the Moving Picture Shows for Good." Mrs. Fitch explained how the childish mind was impressed with the lessons taught by the photo-plays.

At the conclusion of the session, delightful hot chocolate, sandwiches and wafers was served by Mrs. Hadden.

The M. C. Club is doing a wonderful work, and is a power for good in the community. It was this Club which undertook the sale of the Red Cross Stamps in this city. Through its work, about 1,000 posters on the evils of the house fly and many tuberculosis posters were distributed here, and a great step was taken towards the suppression of obscene postal cards. A prize is being offered by the Club for the best civic work done during the year in the colored schools. Four Junior Civic Leagues were organized here during the past year. The chairman of this work, Mrs. C. H. Dietrich, is also chairman of the State Junior Civic League. An effort will be made to organize a permanent Civic League for Winchester.

Under the auspices of the M. C. Club, Miss Chinn, of State College, will deliver a lecture here soon on "Household Economics."

The Club has doubled its membership during the past year and is still growing. Though comparatively small it is accomplishing a great deal for the good of the community. The members are lending their aid to a bill for woman suffrage, and to all work along Federation lines. The testing of milk is one of many reforms brought about by the M. C. Club.

The next meeting will be held with Miss Rosa Justice on Wednesday, January 24.

Mrs. W. E. Singleton has returned home, after a three weeks' stay at Ft. Garrett, Woodford county, where she was with her mother, Mrs. Marietta Goode, at the time of her death.

Miss Bettie Wilson and Miss Kate Barbee, of Lexington, were visiting Mrs. R. F. Scobee, on Winn avenue last week. Miss Wilson has returned home, and Miss Barbee will remain for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark are moving from South Main street to Mr. Ben Myers' residence on Burns avenue. Mr. Myers will occupy rooms at the residence.

Mrs. C. V. Bridwell is recovering from several days' illness. Rev. Geo. W. Shepherd will return Wednesday from Richmond.

Miss Laura Spurr is in this city to organize a class in art among the teachers in the Winchester City schools.

Miss Letitia Warren, of Danville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lucien Beckner, is attending a house party given by Miss Elizabeth Simpson, in Frankfort.

Mrs. Smith Kerr and Mrs. D. T. Matlack left Wednesday morning for Clearwater, Fla. Mr. Matlack will join them later.

Mr. James P. Menifee has returned to her home in Knoxville, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Lucien Beckner. A Miss Lois Dietrich has returned to Richmond, after a visit to her parents here.

Mr. Lucien Beckner is in Nashville.

A LIBERAL OFFER

We Guarantee to Relieve Dyspepsia.

—If We Fail The Medicine Costs Nothing.

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of Bismuth-Subnitrate, and Pepsin have been combined with Carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is carefully prepared so as to develop its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid. Without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.

The Carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of indigestion and dyspepsia.

We are so certain of this that we prove you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at our store—The Rexall Store, Phillips Drug Store, 56 South Main street.

Value of a True Friend.

A sure friend is best known in an adverse state. We know not whom to trust till after trial. There are some that will keep us company while it is clear and fair who will be gone when the clouds gather. That is the only friendship which is stronger than death; and those the friends whose fortunes are embarked in the same bottom—who are resolved to sink or swim together.

The Ubiquitous Spender.

"He spends like a prince," his friends say. "He throws it around like a drunken sailor," says the others. After all, he gets rid of it. And you can pick your simile from any class of society you choose and still be about right.

Starve to Gain Weight.

The fat one who has been cut out of meals galore will now rejoice. The last cure for thinness is to omit every other dinner. A man under such treatment by advice of an up-to-date physician has gained at the rate of two pounds a week. With Parolan special dieting five meals a day for obesity it sounds as if the doctors liked change as much as the mode-makers.

Queer Remedy for Ague.

It was prescribed by an old superstition that if those who were affected with ague would visit at dead of night, the nearest cross road five different times and then bury a new laid egg, the disease would be buried. If the experiment failed, they attributed it to some unlucky accident that may have befallen them on the way.

Eye Strain.

Of all the misfortunes that could befall a human being, the loss of sight is probably the greatest, and yet no organ of the body is so constantly abused as the eye. The trouble is that the possessor of the normal eye does not take into consideration that in all near work, as in reading, writing, sewing, etc., the eye is actively engaged as well as the hand and brain, and that the eye only is at rest when looking into space or when closed.

Exquisite Anguish.

TO CLAIM HEAD OF SMITH FOUCH

Will Take Charge of Body of Man Who Willed His Own Head to Students.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 17.—Representatives of Dr. Blair, of Apache, Okla., are traveling through the mountains of Eastern Kentucky to Whitesburg, where they will claim the head of Smith Fouch, promised 25 years ago as payment for Dr. Blair's services in saving Fouch's life.

Fouch was shot in the eye. Dr. Blair performed a hazardous operation, and discovered, he says, that Fouch was able to perform normal functions with a bullet in the lobe of his brain.

After Fouch's apparent recovery he said he couldn't pay the doctor, but offered to will the physician his head. The doctor accepted, and when Fouch died a couple of days ago he left a note asking that Dr. Blair be reminded of the bequest.

A medical student is on his way to Fouch's Whitesburg home. Fouch's kinsmen, it is reported, say they will permit decapitation of the corpse.

Fouch lived 25 years with a bullet in his brain.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

A HEROIC SPANISH MAIDEN.

By A. W. MACY.

A woman helped to give Napoleon his first check and to show Europe that he was not invincible. Her name was Agustina, and she is known in history as the Maid of Saragossa. In the Peninsular war the city of Saragossa was twice besieged by the French army; once in the summer of 1808 and again the following winter. The city had no fortifications but crumbling walls, behind which were a few ancient cannon; but the whole population, men, women and children, rushed to its defense. Bravest of them all was Agustina. She was not a woman of quality, only a lemonade seller in the streets; but she performed mighty deeds of valor and by her example encouraged others to acts of bravery. Once when a cannoner fell mortally wounded she snatched the fuse from his hand and herself fired the cannon. For her brave actions she was made an officer in the Spanish army, and presented with many decorations. Saragossa fell, but only after 50,000 of her citizens had perished from war and pestilence. Her heroic defense staggered Napoleon for a time, for it revealed the intrepid spirit of a people when fighting for their homes. Agustina lived to be very old, dying in 1857.

Few Useful Hints.

Stains made by medicines, and especially liniment marks, are among the most obstinate of removal and frequently tax amateur knowledge to the utmost. Iodine marks may, however, be successfully removed by means of liquid ammonia, a little of the spirit being poured into the saucer and the stained garment laid across it and the spot dabbed repeatedly with the fingers until it disappears. It should then be rinsed in tepid water and washed with strong soap as in the usual manner.

Those Undesired Wrinkles.

An habitual expression of inquiry is to blame for permanent lines across the forehead. Then there is another muscle whose office is to draw down the eyebrows. It does its piece of work—and what we speak of is a frown. The permanency of this expression is not in keeping with a happy nature, and is one of the least desired lines.

A Hair's Breadth.

A "hair's breadth" is 17-10,000 of an inch. For the purpose of such fine and delicate measurement tool makers use what is called a micrometer caliper. The hair's breadth is something that has to be taken into consideration in the manufacture of a thousand and one things in the machine maker's art. Close calculation of this sort must be done on the doors of bank vaults, for example, where every part must fit to the nicest degree.—Harper's Weekly.

Rest in Solitude.

The first requisite in resting is to be alone. Every human being is more or less of an irritator. One must get away to his room or to the woods. As near as possible one must secure solitude and silence; for it is in the heart of what shallow people call loneliness that there is found the fountain of refreshment and a new birth of joy in life.
